Design

This Rusty Gold Sweater is every crocheters dream! It's worked top-down using 2 strands of yarn. It has an oversized fit with a positive ease of 15 cm around the bust circumference. So if you love oversized mohair sweaters, this pattern is for you!

Pattern notes:

- The Ch 3 at the beginning of each round counts as the first dc.
- We are working in rounds and will be turning after each round.
- After finishing the V neck we will cut the yarn and start from the back, so the joining line won't be showing in the front.

Final measurements

Neck Line a: 22 cm (25, 28, 32)

Bust Width b: 58 cm (63, 68, 73)

Yoke

For the foundation chain you will use 2 strands, one of Rust (16) and one of Mango (17). For each size you need to chain:

- S - 62 sts
- M - 68 sts
- L - 72 sts
- XL - 80 sts

Row 1

Ch 3 sts, starting with the 5th ch put 1 dc in each st to the end of the row. Ch 3 and turn.

Next, repeat row 3 until you have the same number of sts in the front (counting both panels) as for the back. For each size you should have:

S – 13 rows

M – 15 rows

L – 17 rows

XL – 19 rows

Finish row 13 (15, 17, 19) by joining with a sl st in 3rd st of the turning chain. Cut the yarn and start the next row from the back.

For size XL, row 19 was the last row of the yoke. If you are working this size, just move forward to the Body part of the pattern.
